

The Plan

It's getting lonely on this side of heaven
It feels so strange to be near yet far
You know I never stop thinking of you
It's time to show you my heart

My heart beats as a lonely Father
The tears stream down to cover my face
I'll buy you back from the brink of oblivion
I'll come to take your place

*'Cause I love You
'Cause I love you
O-oh I love you
I'll come to take your place*

I have tried for so long to help you
Right from the moment you pushed me aside
I sent my friends to teach you of my ways
The Truth they told, you denied

With stakes so high, it's time for a change now
I shall announce my master plan
The plan to bring our hearts together
To re-unite us as one

*'Cause I love You
'Cause I love you
O-oh I love you
I'll re-unite us as one
'Cause I love You
'Cause I love you
O-oh I love you
And now this plan has begun*
